

THE BULLETIN.

OFFICE—Second Street, Opposite
Cavalier's Photograph Gallery.

MAYSVILLE, THURSDAY, AUG. 28

Those who receive a copy of the Dollar Weekly Bulletin, and wishing to subscribe will receive it regularly by remitting ONE DOLLAR.

Our terms invariably in advance.

Indiana has already sent into Kentucky ten regiments of 300,000 new troops called into the service, and two more on the way.

One thousand bales of Cotton was burned opposite Helena, Arkansas, by the Confederates last week.

Many of our readers are not aware of the fact that our good looking young friend Jno. J. Brouse, keeps on hand a constant supply of miscellaneous reading, such as the New York Ledger, Mercury, Harper's Weekly, Frank Leslie's Illustrated News, Waverly Magazine, &c. If you stand in need of any of the above Periodicals give him a call.

A camp of instruction for fifty thousand men has been established near Washington.

Over three hundred army officers have been stricken from the rolls under the late stringent order.

The Louisville Journal says that the rumored killing of Capt. W. C. P. Breckinridge in the skirmish at Gallatin, is not confirmed.

A Jersey millionaire, in attempting to evade the draft by leaving New York on Saturday in one of the foreign steamers, was detected in the disguise of a coal heaver.

D. C. Wickliffe, Esq., editor of the Lexington Observer, has been nominated by the Governor and confirmed by the Senate, Secretary of State of Kentucky.

Seven millions four hundred thousand dollars have been paid by the Government at Washington for bounties to volunteers.

The rumor that Gen. McClellan intended resigning his commission is authoritatively contradicted. It received very little credit.

The race for the Goodwood Cup on the 5th inst., was won in a canter by Lord W. Powlett's horse Tim Whiffer. The second horse was Zetland, about a dozen lengths behind the winner, and the Wizard was third. There were only seven runners, and Mr. Ten Broek's American horse Union, was about the last in the race.

It has been suggested that the law-ymers ought by no means to be omitted from the enrollment list; for should they enter the ranks they would make brief work of war, since no opposing army could withstand their charges.

Fifty-eight Confederate prisoners captured by Capt. Mercer, Hodges, and Wortham, in the neighborhood of Mammoth Cave, were placed in prison, in Louisville, on Monday.

A special dispatch from Springfield, Ill., to the Chicago Tribune, of the 21st, says there are 45,000 men enrolled in the State. Thirty regiments are full, and the others nearly so.

We hear that Miss McMahon opened School, on last Monday, with a very good attendance. Her room is well ventilated and commodious. Those who wish to have their children receive a good education may not have the advantages again which they now have. There are desks for about ten scholars more. Terms are remarkably low.

Removal.—We notice that the Telegraph Office has been removed to the building formerly occupied by the Express, next door below the Bulletin Office.

Hon. W. H. Wadsworth has been placed upon the staff of Major General Wallace, with the rank of Colonel.

A colored ball came off in Newark, N. J., a few nights ago, at which, it is stated, a military officer from New York distinguished himself by dancing with a negro woman till both were tired out.

PRETENSE, of the Louisville Journal, thinks that Fort Darling would be the most appropriate place for the confinement of the audacious female traitors still at large in the country.

SECESSION IN SWITZERLAND.—The Italian canton of Ticino threatens to secede from the Swiss Confederation, and the General Diet is determined to prevent such withdrawal.

We gather from the order of Provost Marshal General Dent that Gen. Boyle will soon be relieved from duty in his present position of Military Commandant of Kentucky.

Rumors were current in Cincinnati on Monday that General Buckner had returned to Kentucky, and was near Somerset at the head of 21,000 men. The President of the Kentucky Central Railroad is advised officially of the truth of this report.

In Indiana the time for making the draft has been postponed till the 15th day of September.

As fast as the new regiments arrive in Washington, they are sent to the camps of instruction across the Potomac, under the command of Gen. Casey.

We would call the attention of our patrons to the advertisement of the New Wholesale Dry Goods House of Messrs. M. R. Burgess & Son.

These gentlemen have long been doing business in our midst, and have always been distinguished for their rectitude and close attention to business. Their stock is complete in every department of Staple Dry Goods, Notions, &c., and unsurpassed by any establishment in this section of country. Having selected their goods with attention and care and purchased them exclusively for cash, Messrs. Burgess & Son are prepared to offer them on the most reasonable terms. Their motto is "small profits and quick sales." Merchants may rely on having their orders promptly filled and on getting their goods by the piece or package, at the lowest wholesale prices for cash. Our citizens will consult their interests by giving them a call before purchasing elsewhere.

None but the very lightest draught boats can now navigate the Ohio.

Dr. J. Taylor Bradford and Lieut. Col. Harris have obtained authority to raise an infantry Regiment for service in Kentucky.

There are already filed thirty thousand applications for appointments under the Tax law. Put the applicants in the army!

The first American that Oxford University, England, has seen fit to honor, by granting him an honorary degree, is Jeff. Davis, whose name was received with cheers by the whole body of undergraduates.

Why is the letter O like the equator?—Because it is a circle dividing the globe into two equal parts.

There is a petition in circulation in New York, asking the President to accept a number of regiments, composed wholly, or in part, of negroes. The Express justly calls it the sublimity of impudence, and adds that "the white men, when they gave the electoral vote of New York to Mr. Lincoln, rejected the proposition to allow negroes to vote. These petitioners will not work in the same workshops with negroes; will not serve as waiters in the same house with them; will not worship God in the same house with them; will not worship God in the same pew while living, nor consent to be buried in the same grave-yard when dead. They will demand that the soldier in the field shall do what they consider would degrade them at home."

Archbishop Hughes is now in Ireland, visiting the land of his birth, where he has not before been for sixteen years. He left Ireland when a boy—poor and unpromising—he returns to it now in advanced years, one of the great lights and one of the ablest men of his age; an archbishop of the first order of America; a man consulted by Governors and the National Government in the hour of trial; a friend to the Emperor of France, who receives him with the respect due a father, in his own palace and at his own table; the confidant of the Pope at Rome, and the inferior in his influence of no man in the Roman Church, except the Pope himself.

Letters of Gen. Albert Pike have been intercepted, resigning his commission as a Brigadier General in the Confederate Army, stating as reasons the ruin of his private affairs, his inability to ride on horseback on account of his corpulence, and his unpopularity with the Texas troops.

A NOVEL EXPEDIENT TO OBTAIN RECRUITS FOR THE EMPIRE BRIGADE.—Chas. L. Frothingham, First Lieutenant and Regimental Adjutant of the New York Seventh Regiment, and late quartermaster of the Fifth New York Cavalry, in an advertisement for recruits in Company E, Third Regiment, Spinoza's Empire Brigade, makes the following appeal:

"This will be the first regiment in the field from New York, and it is earnestly hoped that the young men of New York and vicinity will come forward and join a company, under experienced officers, to put down this wicked rebellion, which has been brought on by such men as Wendell Phillips, Horace Greeley, Henry Ward Beecher, and a host of other abolition traitors."

DIED.
Died at the residence of his mother in this city, August 14th, Mr. WM. F. CARNAHAN, in his 32 year.

Died at his residence in this city, on the 24th inst., GEORGE SUTHER, in the 55th year of his age.

Mr. Suther was an old and highly respectable citizen of this community. His heart was overflowing with hospitality and kindness, and he was generally beloved and respected by all who knew him.
